Beautiful example of one of Gidea Park's 1920's-character homes, situated within a conservation area which has been meticulously refurbished and maintained over time to result in stunning Art Deco style living accommodation.

As you walk through the manicured front gardens to the front door with coloured leaded light windows and cross the front doorstep with its black and white Victorian mosaic tiles which continue into the entrance hall you can already appreciate just how cared for this beautiful home is.

The Lounge and Dining Room have been opened to provide plenty of natural light with both rooms benefiting from splay bay windows overlooking the front and rear gardens respectively. Both have feature fireplaces carefully sourced by the present owners. The well-appointed Kitchen has been extended to 20'9" in length and has a part glass lantern roof to keep the natural light throughout the property.

To the first floor there are Three Bedrooms and a Bathroom with a Victorian Style Suite.

To the rear, a pathway leads through the gardens which are established and well maintained and includes a store and outdoor W.C. There is an attached garage to the side of the property benefiting from own driveway which can also be accessed from the rear garden.

Viewing at your earliest opportunity is highly recommended.
